BRENTWOOD SCHOOL is a non-profit, independent, coeducational, college-preparatory day school. Though located in West Los Angeles, Brentwood School benefits from its close proximity to major freeways by drawing students from the greater Los Angeles area. Students of color comprise 37% of the student body, which numbers 740 students in grades 7–12.

Admission is very competitive. Brentwood's goal is to attract students who are both highly motivated academically and diverse in their backgrounds, interests, personalities, and talents. Beyond Brentwood's rigorous academic program, the school also offers particularly strong programs in visual and performing arts, athletics, community service, and journalism.

education and act as peer educators, teaching assistants, and tutors. They also partner with L.A. schools to research and attempt to implement reform.

HONOR ROLL: Brentwood School names students to the Honor Roll who have no effort or citizenship marks of U and a grade point average for the prior semester of 3.2 to 3.59.

INDEPENDENT STUDY: Students whose petitions are approved engage in one or two semesters of rigorous study under the direction of a faculty advisor.

PEER LEADERS AND TEACHING ASSISTANTS: Selected after a rigorous application process, 20 Peer Leaders and 10 Teaching Assistants are trained to conduct weekly outreach session with 9th graders. By facilitating dialogue through an activity based model, Peer Leaders take a course in Applied Psychology while TA's support the Human Development course in order to guide freshman during a critical developmental phase. These seniors are engaged role models in our community.

PREFECT: The student body elects five Prefects from the senior class each year. Together, they lead the upper school. Two are chosen by the Head of School to be co-Head Prefects.

SUMMER STUDY: Courses offered during the summer are an extension of our college preparatory program and fulfill graduation requirements. Some students choose to take summer classes to create other options for themselves during the school year.
